

Sinclair's decision to air a unpaid political ad in support of an administration that has given them the green light to destroy community broadcasting for their own profit is pure corruption. Media corporations need to be under stricter FCC control not less.